

Commission a One-of-a-Kind Seascape or Landscape Painting

Create a meaningful artwork inspired by a place you love

A commissioned painting is more than a picture, it's a memory, a feeling, and a place captured forever. Commissions are very personal, they are a premium, personal experience and gift.

Whether it's a favourite beach, a special holiday destination, a family property, or a landscape that holds a beautiful memory, I can create an original oil painting designed especially for you.

Perfect as a gift for:

- Father's Day
- Christmas
- Birthdays
- Anniversaries
- Weddings
- Housewarmings
- Special milestones

Each painting is individually created in my signature contemporary Impressionist expressive style, with attention to atmosphere, light and the feeling of the scene.

How the Commission Process Works

1. Share your idea

Send me:

- Your favourite photograph(s)
- Details about the place
- Any memories or feelings you would like captured

2. We discuss your painting

I'll confirm the size, price and timeframe and make sure your idea suits my painting style.

3. Secure your commission

A 50% non-refundable deposit reserves your place in my commission calendar. You sign a contract that details size, prices, timeframe, and other relevant details.

4. Your painting is created

I'll bring your landscape or seascape to life with my impressionistic approach, focusing on light, colour and atmosphere.

5. Final approval & delivery

Once complete, the remaining balance is paid and your original artwork is ready to enjoy.

Examples of Commission Ideas

Some meaningful ideas include:

-  A favourite beach where your family holidays
-  A sunset from a memorable trip
-  A special property or family home
-  A beautiful landscape from a place you love
-  A meaningful gift celebrating a special occasion

Note that I do not offer portraits, only seascapes and landscapes.

Frequently Asked Questions

Can you paint from my photograph?

Yes. Clear photographs are ideal, especially when they capture a place that has personal meaning. I can also work with multiple photos to create the final composition.

Do I need a professional photo?

No. A phone photo is often enough if it captures the feeling and details of the place.

Can I request colours or a particular mood?

Absolutely. Let me know what you love about the scene — whether it's the warmth of a sunset, the calm of the ocean, or the atmosphere of a landscape.

How long does a commission take?

Timing depends on my current schedule and the size and complexity of the painting. I will confirm an estimated completion time before starting.

Can I buy a commission as a gift?

Yes. A commissioned painting makes a very personal and memorable gift. Gift certificates may also be available.

Do you offer framing?

Framing options can be discussed depending on the artwork size and your preferences.

What happens if I don't know exactly what I want?

That's completely fine. We can work together to create an artwork based on a place, memory or feeling.

What if I don't like the result or change my mind?

I will keep you informed of progress and direction and you can make up to 3 changes during this time. If you are still not happy, there's no problem, I will keep the painting. Your 50% deposit, however, is not refundable.
